Tana Yasu

Objective

The Objective is to become more ingrained to my community. By joining the Seattle Women's Commission I would participate in addressing issues impacting women in Seattle.

Education

- Renton Technical College
- AAS 2009
- Administrative Office Management
- President and Vice President Rolls of Honor for high GPA

Experience

1995 – 2011

Proprietor | African Hairitage | Renton

Purchasing my first business before the age of 30 was a major accomplishment. I am very proud to have used mostly instinct and imagination for my first "official" business. The salon specialised in African Cultured Hair and Fashion Styling. We participated in trade shows, fashion shows, parades and festivals. We broke ground in many areas of marketing.

2011 – Present

Proprietor | Pink Boutique | Seattle

Designer, Stylist, Operations Manager, Community Activation. Pink Boutique Styling Studio is a synthesis of hair and fashion styling and design. Each service is personalised and individualised, I like to make my clients feel special, and not just a cookie-cutter salon experience. We venture out more and would like to be involved with community organisations. We feel in these hard times the simple act of grooming oneself can be a hope-giving experience. We love the glitz and the glam, but we are finding the value of the simple things as well.
