Background: Samuel Hilbert is a proud resident and business owner within Seattle. Since moving to the region nearly 20 years ago, he has been deeply involved in his community, striving to contribute to its well-being and growth. In 2016, Samuel and his partner opened their first winery tasting room in the Capitol Hill community. Before its oAicial launch, they found themselves actively involved in community engagement through the Greater Seattle Business Association (GSBA). In their first two years open they won several major awards, including the honor of “New Business of the Year” from the GSBA and “Top Wine in the PNW” from Great Northwest Wine. Since its inception, Samuel has worked hard to grow Aluel Cellars in the Seattle area. He currently runs three locations in the neighborhoods of Queen Anne, Ballard, and Capitol Hill. This has allowed him to build a leadership team which has helped boost employees’ experience in the industry. Each location has also provided the ability for more community engagement. Samuel remains committed to community development, serving on the boards of the Capitol Hill Business Alliance and Queen Anne Community Council, while maintaining active involvement with the Ballard Alliance. As Aluel Cellars has grown, Samuel has understood the importance of ensuring that employees are always treated fairly while also working hard to protect his own business to ensure survival and growth. He believes in the importance of amplifying the voices of the small business community – many that often aren’t heard simply because they don’t have the time to make their voices heard.
