Budget Action description:

This green sheet would add $100,000 GSF to the Seattle Office for Civil Rights (SOCR) and impose a proviso on funding for a comprehensive youth (18 and under) diversion program that has been developed by a consortium of dozens of community organizations, community members, and youth directly involved with and impacted by the current system.

The consortium members include: Community Passageways, GuidenU4Life, TeamChild, Public Defender Association, Alliance for Gun Responsibility, SafeFutures Youth Center, Somali Youth and Family Club, Companion Athletics, and the Glover Empower Mentoring Program.

The program involves the following elements that are designed to establish the positive assets that youth need to thrive in the community. The requirements are outlined in the table below. They include six mandatory items (marked by *) and six non-mandatory items of which they must complete at least three. Completing these requirements takes a minimum of three months and may take up to 12 months per youth.

Personal Healing and Skill Development	Positive Community Engagement	Personal Milestones
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Complete 3 healing circles* ❖ Complete life skills curriculum* ❖ Complete a personal plan of action* 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Meet weekly with mentor* ❖ Regular engagement in a pro-social activity (e.g., church, volunteering, art)* ❖ Bring a friend to join in healing circles & programming ❖ Complete 30 hours of community service 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Attend school (traditional or alternative) or apply to at least 3 jobs* ❖ Have a steady job ❖ Maintain passing grades and 85% attendance in school (traditional or alternative school) ❖ Have stable housing ❖ Complete substance abuse treatment and/or pass drug tests

This green sheet would impose the following budget proviso:

“Of the appropriation in the 2018 budget for the Seattle Office for Civil Rights (SOCR), $100,000 is appropriated solely for a comprehensive youth diversion program and may be spent for no other purpose. Furthermore, none of the money so appropriated may be spent until the City Council approves by ordinance a proposed spending plan submitted by SOCR to the City Council committee with oversight over civil rights issues and the City Council Central Staff Director.”
