Background: Jordan Howard is a 9th grader and attends Alexander Hamilton International Middle School in District 4. Jordan is a new resident to Seattle from Chicago. The issues that Jordan are most passionate about are homelessness, youth detentions, mentorship for young men and public safety. As a Seattle Youth Commissioner, he hopes to learn how local government works, how the voice of the people is heard, and what measures are used to manage budgets and results. Jordan is proud to have spent 3 years in China and to be part of a family deeply committed to community involvement. He hopes to continue such traditions while seeking new ways of community engagement.
Authorizing Signature (original signature): 		Appointing Signatory: Jenny A. Durkan Mayor of Seattle

Q5 Why do you want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission?

The SYC would allow me to engage within my new city (we just moved to Seattle December 2017) on issues and opportunities that face us all. I have been involved with just a few programs within the community and I'd truly like to expand my mind and impact.

Q6 What are the issues in your community that you are passionate about and why?

- Access to steady jobs for underrepresented youth
- Homelessness
- Youth detention concerns
- Mentorships for young men
- The effect of quick growth on our neighborhoods
- public safety

Seattle Youth Commission

Q7 What do you hope to gain from this experience?

An understanding of how local government works, how the voice of the people is heard and what measures are used to manage budgets and results.

I have spent a lot of time getting good grades and playing sports, but want to start getting more exposure.

Q8 What do you think makes your perspective unique to others?

My family has lived in a variety of cities and spent 3 years living in China. We have experienced cities where access to education and jobs depended greatly on your income vs. ability, which needs to be more balanced. My family has been involved in the community, the schools and churches wherever we've lived and I want to continue this tradition. Also, I am very curious and seek options that may have never been tried!
