Community Oversight & Structure

Teaching artists at a professional development day

Mission & Vision

We activate and sustain Seattle through arts and culture.

We envision a city driven by creativity that provides the opportunity for everyone to engage in diverse arts and cultural experiences.

Greatness Starts Here

Our Commitment to Racial Equity

We commit to an anti-racist work practice that centers the creativity and leadership of people of color—those most impacted by structural racism—to move toward systems that benefit us all.

Who We Fund

Centering Art & Racial Equity Grant

- In the 2023-2025 grant, nearly 1/3rd are BIPOC
- Application pool for this non-competitive grant is over 300 in 2026

Funding Streams: 1% for Art

The 1% for art ordinance funds the work of our Public Art Division and mandates capital construction departments to include “an amount for works of art equal to at least one percent (1%) of the total cost of any such construction project.”

Funding Streams: Admission Tax

Carmina Burana
Spectrum Dance Theater

The Admission Tax funds arts and cultural programming and operations.

We use these resources to build and sustain the creative sector.

Arts Education - The Creative Advantage

We partner with Seattle Public Schools, the Seattle Foundation, and community arts organizations to reinvest in Seattle's students and our community's economic and creative future.

Creative Placemaking

We invite artists to shape Seattle's present and future by infusing City funds into neighborhoods and encouraging people to experience local arts and culture.

This Much Brass, WALK DON'T RUN
Funded by Hope Corps

Cultural Space

- Two programs:
 - Cultural Facilities Funding
 - Cultural Districts
- Rebuild via Cultural Planning process
