

You may know me as Lower
Queen
Anne, but my friends call me Uptown

A Growing Urban Center

Expanding mix of housing, jobs, transit, open space, arts and culture

Welcoming all people makes it a better place to live

How do we want to grow?

Our Guiding Principles

Uptown is a growing Urban Center

Uptown values equity

Uptown encourages the development of a diverse range of housing types and affordability levels

Uptown is a regional hub connecting adjacent neighborhoods and major employers

Uptown is best served by a strong multimodal Transportation system

Uptown is a vibrant emerging Arts and Culture District

Uptown celebrates Seattle Center as a vital part of the neighborhood

Uptown's open space supports healthy Uptown residents

Uptown values its history

At the Intersection between Life and Work

Diverse range of housing sizes and prices to meet growing demand for:

Families and Singles

Workers and Retirees

Arts and Culture Workforce

How can we make Uptown the kind of neighborhood where creative innovation might shift power; flatten hierarchies, and further equity and inclusion?

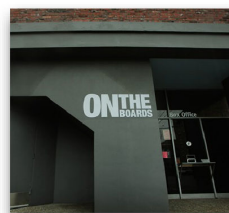

Investment in Mobility

LAKE2BAY
coalition

Activate the Arts and Culture District

Celebrating Seattle Center

New changes to improve community connections Center attractions in Uptown, we have a unique opportunity to inspire growth fueled by a

Vision of Vibrancy

