| Background: Devin Silvernail grew up in South King County and first moved to Seattle in 2006. He is founder and Executive Director of Be:Seattle, a non-profit that serves renter and homeless neighbors. He is also a tenant education counselor at the Tenants Union of Washington and a volunteer Legal Assistant at the Housing Justice Project. Previously, he worked as a community organizer and political consultant in San Francisco where he helped build tenant-led campaigns. Additionally, he served as Constituent Services Lead for former San Francisco Supervisor David Campos, where he gained a deep appreciation for constituent concerns. Devin firmly believes that action at City Hall starts with activism in the community and is excited to serve the city that he loves. | | |
