City of Seattle's Current Accountability Triad

History of the Triad

Community Police Commission

- Established by MOU in July 2012 pursuant to the USDOJ & City of Seattle Consent Decree.
- Originally comprised of 15 members of the community.
- Made permanent and independent by the Police Accountability Ordinance (ORD 125315) in June 2017. Increased size of Commission to 21 members.
- The CPC assumed community outreach and policy review functions of the OPA Review Board. (See Ord 120728)
- In July 2023, reduced commission size to original 15 members and overhauled authorizing legislation. (see Ord 126860)

Office of the Inspector General for Public Safety

The Office of Inspector General for Public Safety (OIG) was established in 2017 by the Police Accountability Ordinance.

The OIG assumed the functions that had previously been performed by the Police Auditor. (See Ord 120728)

The OIG assumed the operational audit functions that had previously been handled by the OPA Auditor and the OPA Review Board. (See Ord 120728)

Lisa Judge was confirmed by the City Council on April 30, 2018, as the inaugural Inspector General (IG).

Office of Police Accountability

- In 2002, SPD's Internal Investigations Unit, now OPA, is to be led by a civilian Director. (See Ord 120728)
- Police Accountability Ordinance civilianized OPA supervisors / intake personnel. (ORD 125315)
- Police Accountability Ordinance revised investigations timelines (e.g., 180-Day Clock), standard of proof and disciplinary appeals and grievance processes.
