Why do you want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission?

I am interested in joining the Seattle Youth Commission because I want to use this opportunity to demonstrate leadership skills that will impact my community. I am action-oriented and have demonstrated the ability to overcome issues creatively. In the future, I plan to serve my community through active participation in local office.

What are the issues in your community that you are passionate about and why?

Issues I have observed is homelessness, vandalism and mental health resources for many disadvantaged members of the community. I chose to speak about vandalism because I believe that the environment of a community has a direct impact on its residents.

What do you hope to gain from this experience?

Beginning this year, one of my goals was focused on self-improvement and motivation. By this experience, I will be able to challenge myself in serving others. Importantly, I will also be able to create a professional network with Seattle's City Council and would hope to find a mentor.

What do you think makes your perspective unique to others?

My perspective is unique because I come from a background in working in a family business. This has taught me responsibilities, work ethic, and customer service. I have launched a business, was a member in Toastmasters and am currently attending college. I have also read many books on leadership skills and business management books. My selling point is my optimism and ability to empower others.

Interviews will be scheduled on Mondays & Wednesdays from 4:00 – 6:00 pm. Which of these days are you available? There will be an opportunity to join interview via Skype.*

- Wednesday
