D. Parliamentary Inquiry.

A CM may direct a Parliamentary Inquiry to the presiding officer to obtain information on a matter of parliamentary law or the rules of the organization bearing on the business at hand. Inquiries may assist a CM to, e.g., make an appropriate motion, raise a proper point of order, or understand the parliamentary situation or the effect of a motion.

E. Recognition by the Chair.

If two or more CMs rise at the same time, the Chair shall designate the one who shall speak first.

5. The decision in response to the appeal shall be by majority vote of the CMs in attendance. In case of a tie vote, the decision of the Chair shall stand.

H. Call the Question.

A CM may make a motion to Call the Question (also known as Previous Question) to end debate on an immediate pending motion. This motion requires a two-thirds vote in favor.

I. Hold to a Certain Time.

To postpone a question to a certain time, and within limits, the motion shall state a definite date, meeting, or hour, or until after a certain event.

J. Lay on the Table.

A majority of CMs present may decide to temporarily halt consideration of a question immediately and without debate during a meeting. The maker of a motion to Lay on the Table must state the reason for the motion. A motion that has been laid on the table may be brought back by a motion to Take from the Table until the end of the next meeting.

K. Take from the Table.

Once a question has been laid on the table, it can be taken from the table by a majority vote of CMs present, as soon as the interrupting business has been disposed of or whenever no other question is pending.

L. Hold Indefinitely.

A majority of CMs present may decide not to take a direct vote or position on a main question by disposing of it with a motion to Hold Indefinitely. The question may not be brought back again for at least 60 days.

V. FULL COUNCIL VOTING

A. Voting Required.

1. Every CM in attendance shall vote on all actions before the Full Council, except that CMs must disqualify themselves from voting if disqualification is required by either the City's Code of Ethics* or the Washington State Appearance of Fairness Doctrine, and CMs may disqualify themselves from voting to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest, unless a majority of those present vote that there is no conflict. (See also Rule V.D.2 Announcing and Recording Votes.)

2. Abstentions are not allowed. CMs not having disqualified themselves pursuant to Rule V.A.1 shall vote "Aye" or "No."

3. All votes shall be recorded by the City Clerk in the Journal of Proceedings.†

B. Roll Call Voting.

A roll call vote will be taken when voting on final passage of Bills and on other business when requested by a CM. A roll call vote is called in alphabetical order of last name, except for the President, whose name is always called last. At each regular Council meeting, the first name on the roll, in a systematic rotation, is moved to the name immediately preceding the President's name.

C. Voice Vote.

A voice vote may be taken on any matter of business before the Council, unless a roll call vote has been requested as provided in Rule V.B.

D. Announcing and Recording Votes.

1. After a roll call vote, the City Clerk shall announce the "ayes" and "nos" and "disqualifications" for all votes and enter them into the Journal of the Proceedings. The announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.

2. When a CM is in attendance and has been disqualified from voting under Rule I.B.2.d, the Clerk shall record and announce "in attendance, but disqualified from voting." (See also Rule V.A.1 Voting Required.)

F. Tie Vote.

In the event of a tie vote, a motion does not pass.

G. Reconsideration.

1. After the final vote on any motion, Bill, Resolution, or Clerk File, and before the adjournment of that meeting, any CM who voted with the prevailing side may move for reconsideration of the original motion. Seconds to motions for reconsideration may be from either side.

a. If the result of the final vote is to pass any motion, Bill, Resolution, or Clerk File, any reconsideration vote must take place before adjournment of that meeting, or else there shall be no reconsideration vote.

b. If a Bill is moved for final passage and fails to pass, and a motion to reconsider is made, the motion shall not be voted on before the next meeting of the Full Council.*

2. A motion to reconsider takes precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn.

3. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question shall be made and decided immediately.

4. A motion that does not pass in a standing or select committee meeting cannot be reconsidered, but the motion may be offered to the Full Council.

* Charter, Art. IV, § 10.
