I have experience providing political leadership for the largest UFCW local in the country and largest local union in Washington State with over 45,000 members. I have worked extensively with members in the grocery, retail and healthcare industries and oversee the internal political program for one of the most progressive unions in the country.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS LOCAL 21 || Political Action Director (June 2011 – Present)

- Coordinate member outreach and the internal political program for the largest private-sector union in Washington State, including voter education, PAC fundraising, GOTV efforts, voter registration, and member mobilization.
- Co-led the field program for the $15 for Seattle Coalition and Seattle Paid Sick Leave Coalition
- Represent UFCW at various tables including, Washington State Labor Council, Healthy Washington Coalition, Revenue Coalition, and Ballot Initiative Network, Progressive Majority Board, etc.
- Oversee UFCW 21 field staff on all political work
- Develop all member communications regarding legislative and political issues
- Develop our yearly political and legislative program, including identifying top issues, key electoral races, and areas where we can increase member engagement in the union
- Handle all candidate interaction with our union from endorsement process to electoral support
- Use data to analyze the effectiveness of our political program and develop best practices
- Lead policy analyst for any issues that impact UFCW 21 members

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS LOCAL 21 || Organizer/ Researcher (December 2010 – June 2011)

- Conducted policy research on various issues related to our membership including food policy, workplace and food safety, paid sick leave, executive compensation, and wage standards.
- Engaged with workers at un-organized workers about the benefit of joining a union

UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS LOCAL 21 || Union Representative/ Political Organizer (May 2008 – December 2010)

- Recruited and trained UFCW 21 members in political and workplace activism
- Lead the 2008 field effort at UFCW 555 in Oregon for the member-to member campaign for both President Barack Obama and Senator Jeff Merkley.
- Represented of 1,800 grocery/retail members in contract enforcement, disciplinary grievances and other workplace issues
- Trained shop-stewards and organized members to action, particularly in the 2010 grocery bargain
