Short Answer Questions

Please limit your responses to 100-150 words for each question.

3. Please share about your interest in becoming a youth commissioner. What interest you in this role and what do you hope gain from the experience as a Seattle Youth Commissioner? *

I want to join the Seattle Youth Commission because I want to learn, contribute and engage with my community.
If I am lucky enough to be chosen as a youth commissioner, I would hope to gain more communication and public speaking skills, knowledge and understanding of how city leaders serve our city, and an incredible overall learning and life experience.

4. The City of Seattle's Race and Social Justice Initiative advances racial equity in city government and the community. What are your ideas about applying race and social justice principles as a Seattle Youth Commissioner? *

I believe the Seattle Youth Commissioners should reflect the people and cultures living in our diverse community. I think it would be helpful to hear from the kids at schools in our community, what would make them feel better represented

5. What issues or current events in your community are you passionate about and why? *

Currently I'm passionate and concerned about feeling safe in my neighborhood because I don't feel safe right now. Being able to go outside in your neighborhood and feel safe is part of a healthy childhood. Top three issues include: 1. Gun violence; 2. Fentanyl; 3. Access to quality education

6. What project have you worked on that you are most proud of? Please describe this project and what contributions you made. *

I haven't had the opportunity to work on a meaningful project but at my school I will be participating in Planting the Seeds, a service-learning project. I am a part of Rainier Scholars, a comprehensive 12 year program that combines academic enrichment, mental health support, college counseling and leadership and career development. I'm incredibly proud of being admitted into this program and the hard work I have done in my 4 years there.

7. The Seattle Youth Commission has five sub-committees. If selected, which committee are you most interested in joining? *

- Health & Human Service
- Civil Rights & Immigration
- Education
- Economic Development
- Executive Committee (Co-Chairs)
