Personal Statement

The arts, and artists, are the first responders in times of social crisis. The arts reflect, provoke, question, and connect human beings and the human experience. For a just society to exist, we must ensure access to the arts are available, representative, and part of the thread that binds the fabric of our society together.

Professional Experience

Executive Director
Path with Art
Seattle

2013 – present

Since 2008, Path with Art has been at the forefront of a growing international movement that utilizes the power of art as a means to bring dignity, awareness, and healing to the complexities of the issues surrounding homelessness, and recovery from trauma. Holly joined Path with Art as executive Director in 2013 in order to help steer its next phase of growth, helping to increase the organization's community impact.

Under Holly's leadership, Path with Art:

- embarked on a strategic assessment and adapted a five-year strategic plan which has been used as a model in the Arts Leadership programs at Seattle University
- quadrupled the number of individual participants served
- created a student-artist directed model of programming
- launched Community Connections, a program that provides an avenue for disparate individuals in our community to make and experience art together as a means to connect through the human lens of art versus circumstances
- increased organizational visibility
- grew annual revenue and budget from $230K - $1.3mm
- increased organizational profile through exhibitions and showcases at the Seattle Art Museum, the Washington State Convention Center, The Seattle Symphony, The Gates Discovery Center, and collaborations with the artist Trimpin and the Pearl Jam Home Shows
- is a recognized leader in an emerging international Arts and Homelessness movement

Co- Director
Voter Action
United States

2003 – 2010

Voter Action led national election reform efforts in seven states through legal challenges of the reliability of electronic voting systems and efforts to ensure that all eligible citizens were able to vote fairly, and with confidence. Through the recruitment and support of highly regarded legal firms in Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, New Mexico, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, Voter Action helped enable change to state election law and voting systems and set federal precedence to ensure citizens of those states had fair and equal access to have their vote reliably counted. Voter Action led public awareness efforts through media, including USA Today, Washington Post, CNN, the Associated Press, and various regional media outlets.

In 2006, Voter Action partnered with CNN, the University of Pennsylvania, the Advancement Project, and the League of Women Voters to provide a national election hotline which was able to real-time catalog and respond to problems on election day.
