Background: A second-generation Laborer that has been a member of Laborers Local Union 242 for over 20+ years. Had a strong blue-collar upbringing in the outskirts of Seattle that graduated from the public school educational system and decided to go off to college to further my education. During my college years, I was able to work in the union with my father to help with my educational costs. After college, I worked for a few years in the banking industry but missed the teamwork and friendship I gained in the construction industry. About 7 years ago, I transitioned out of the field to our Training School where I found a passion for mentoring future journey workers through the apprenticeship program. Currently, I continue that passion in my new role as Political Director for the local by serving on 5 School Districts Career and Technical Advisory Boards in King County. I'm also a volunteer baseball and wrestling coach in my community.
