Background: Donny Stevenson serves as the Vice-Chairman of the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe as an elected member of the Muckleshoot Tribal Council and considers this role as the greatest honor of his professional life. He attended the Evergreen State College where he earned his formal education through a Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts focused on Native American Studies. He has worked as an Executive-level leader in Indian Country over the course of a 25-year career serving his Tribe and people. Donny is passionate about accessing the traditional teachings and wisdom of the ancestors and elders to build a sustainable and successful future for all; but, particularly his Tribal people and community. He believes this is accomplished through the lens of collaborative spirit toward unity while asserting Tribal identity, self-governance and sovereignty. Ultimately, building pathways of creativity, healing, persistence, reclamation and opportunity through the strength and legacy provided by Tribal culture and tradition. Donny and his wife Tina, reside together and raised their four now-grown children happily within the Muckleshoot Tribal community, where these principles and values have shaped their lives together and all taken on the very personal application of those family values and a responsibility to the next generation and all those that follow. Donny truly counts himself blessed to work within and serve Indian Country and considers this work sacred; not only a very real responsibility, but also a profound legacy and true blessing to be even a small part of.
