Molly Holmes has been a member of the Aging and Disability Services Advisory Council since 2011. She is a tireless advocate – attending meetings with legislators at home and in Olympia. Molly is our current Chair, several years ago she was nominated secretary. She wrote numerous hand-written thank you notes and professionally edited the monthly minutes and other documents before they went to the community. Molly grew up in Washington’s Yakima Valley. She received a BA from Central Washington State College. In 1949, she and her husband founded a weekly newspaper in Quincy, Grant County, which continues to serve the community. A few years, and four children later, she began work as Publications Editor for the Washington State School Directors Association in Olympia. She earned her teaching certificate in 1969 and taught children with disabilities for 23 years. She loves the outdoors and has hiked and kayaked throughout the Northwest. As a volunteer, with Habitat for Humanity she built houses in Tacoma, Yakima, and Central America and also managed a nonprofit thrift store.

To Gigi Meinig
Aging and Disability Services
P.O. Box 34215
Seattle, WA 98124-4215

Dear Ms. Meinig:

I am most interested in this opportunity to serve on the Aging and Disability Services Advisory Council. I believe my many years of working with children with disabilities, and my age, will be assets.

My particular interests are accessible, safe, walking routes and public transportation.

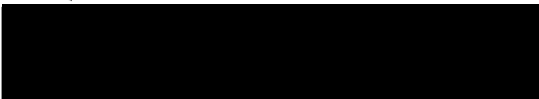

Please review my resume for other venues in which I have worked or volunteered, which are other areas of knowledge which may be useful on such a committee.

Thank you for considering this application.

Very truly yours,

Molly Holmes
