Background:  Amelia Ossorio is an artist and junior at the University of Washington. She studies Persian in the Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures department at UW, and is a proud recipient of the FLAS language fellowship from the school's South Asia Center. Amelia is involved with several non-profit organizations in Seattle that align with her goals of immigrant-empowerment, which she plans to continue in her work after she graduates in 2025. She has contributed her art to the Seattle African Community Housing and Development organization, where she took notes during monthly meetings for parents in the Highline School District discussing various concerns to report to the school district with a focus on the needs of African and Muslim K-12 students. She also volunteers her time to teach art classes for Peyvand, an organization led by the Iranian American community of Seattle. Amelia's most recent project for Peyvand was illustrating the designs for the King County Library System's celebration of Nowruz, the Iranian new year, in collaboration with Peyvand. On the Seattle Immigrant and Refugee Commission, Amelia hopes to broaden her experience in advocacy and community outreach with a multicultural and arts focus.
