Background: Mr. Macleod is a photojournalist working in the architecture and historic preservation fields. He holds a Master of Architecture and Certificate of Historic Preservation Studies from the University of Washington, with extensive coursework and project experience focused in urban/preservation planning. Mr. Macleod has a minor degree in architectural history from his undergraduate studies. This paired with his knowledge of planning, construction, building renovation, and the treatment of historic properties has made him a major contributor to the Architectural Review Committee and Landmarks Board. Mr. Macleod currently serves as the Board Chair, for which we are very grateful, and we look forward to his reappointment.
