Budget Action description:

This budget action imposes the following proviso:

"The Council intends that the component of the Homelessness Management Information System (HMIS) that involves the collection of personally identifiable information shall require Council approval as acquisition of surveillance technology under Chapter 14.18 of the Seattle Municipal Code. None of the money appropriated in the 2018 budget for the Human Services Department (HSD) may be spent for any activities related to using HMIS, including the HMIS Scan Card pilot, if such activities involve accessing personally identifiable information from HMIS, until such HMIS activities are covered by a surveillance impact report approved by the Council pursuant to Chapter 14.18 SMC and HSD files a letter confirming said Council approval with the City Clerk."
