CITY OF SEATTLE
ORDINANCE 124753
COUNCIL BILL 118356

An ORDINANCE relating to City employment; adding a new Chapter 4.27 to the Seattle Municipal Code to provide a Paid Parental Leave Benefit to eligible city employees; amending Seattle Municipal Code Subsection 4.20.055 to provide the Paid Parental Leave benefit to eligible temporary workers; and establishing other conditions of implementing the new benefit.

WHEREAS, the United States is the only developed nation in the world without paid parental leave; and

WHEREAS, the City of Seattle stands to become the first municipality in the region to offer paid parental leave and serve as a model to other employers in the region; and

WHEREAS, in 2014, the City Council and Mayor confirmed their commitment to promote gender equity in Resolution 31523 including a study on Paid Parental Leave; and

WHEREAS, the City hired the consultant firm of Towers Watson to review Paid Parental Leave programs in other jurisdictions and to evaluate the current access to paid time off City employees had at the time of birth or adoption of a newborn child; and

WHEREAS, the Towers Watson report indicates that other cities, such as San Francisco, Austin, Chicago and Washington D.C. provide a Paid Parental Leave benefit ranging from 2 to 12 weeks; and

WHEREAS, Towers Watson reviewed City employees' utilization of accrued sick leave and accrued vacation to care for newborn children; and

WHEREAS, the Towers Watson report indicates that approximately 230 City employees a year add newborn children to their families either through birth or adoption; the average tenure of these employees at the City is six years; women take more than twice as much

1 total time off as men (18 weeks for women as compared to 7 weeks for men); and men 2 take only paid time off, whereas women take both paid and unpaid time off and take an 3 average of eight weeks of unpaid time off; and

4 WHEREAS, while the City's Family Medical Leave policy provides eligible City employees up 5 to 90 calendar days of unpaid leave and city employees may use accrued paid time off for 6 the care of a new child, there is no guarantee that all employees, particularly new 7 employees, will have accrued paid time off to bond with a new child; and

8 WHEREAS, the City has determined that providing paid time off for working parents to care for 9 a new child allows time to create and strengthen bonds between the child and parents and 10 foster stronger families; and

11 WHEREAS, the City has determined that providing parents paid time off to bond with a new 12 child can help the City retain and recruit talent, help employees to balance their 13 responsibilities between work and home allowing them to become more productive and 14 effective at their work; and

15 WHEREAS, increasing employee engagement and morale reduces costly employee turnover and 16 helps ensure a diverse and inclusive workforce; and

17 WHEREAS, when men and women are equally incentivized to take parental leave, the 18 perception of women as the sole family caregiver is diminished, minimizing bias against 19 mothers and women in the workplace.

20 NOW, THEREFORE;

21
22 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

23 Section 1. A new Chapter 4.27 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
