Background:

Corina Yballa proudly serves over a hundred Seattle labor unions as the Political Director of MLK Labor Council. In her role, she coordinates with local unions to elect pro-worker candidates to office and helps advocate for policies that benefit working people in the City of Seattle and beyond. They also support multiple projects at MLK Labor, including the President's Organizing Initiative's UnionHiringHall.org and young worker leadership development. Corina is an Executive Board Member of their union OPEIU Local 8 and has a background in anti-poverty legislative advocacy (she helped pass the Working Families Tax Credit in Olympia), national student labor organizing, and international garment labor organizing. Corina is a graduate of the Harry Bridges Center for Labor Studies at the University of Washington.

RIENCE
Coordinates electoral and policy work for over a hundred affiliated local labor unions representing 150,000 members. Supports POI work, young worker development, board and delegate functions, and more.
Represents the interests of nearly 10,000 members in various employment sectors by engaging in discussion and voting on matters of the union's budget, endorsements, member development opportunities, financial contributions, processes, etc.
Organized a statewide network of community advocate and partner organizations, facilitated legislator-constituent engagement, and led two coalition field campaigns.
Performed education, outreach, and turnout for elections and the U.S. Census.
Managed field logistics and data, organized 300+ volunteers to knock 63,000 doors, and developed our campaign's field strategy.
Effectively communicated our campaign's climate, gender, housing, and racial justice platform to the residents of District 4.
Collaborated and formed relationships with international, national, and local organizations and unions to advance global labor conditions and engage communities in intersectional organizing. Worked closely in supporting WFSE Local 1495 members at UW.
Represented the interests of the Worker Rights Consortium by overseeing finances, factory inspection reporting trends, and university and apparel brand relations to advance garment industry labor standards worldwide.
