Dear Seattle Youth Commission,

My name is Dylan Ann Clauson, and I'm in the 8th grade. I'm currently enrolled at Christ the King Catholic School in Seattle. My family and I live in the Greenwood area where we have an urban farm and raise chickens, goats, and honeybees. I enjoy being creative by playing the piano, a tiny bit of ukulele and drawing. I don't have any job experience yet; however, I am participating in my 3rd year on an all girls robotics team, The Super Squirrels. Last year, we made it to the semi finals and won two awards, Most Inspirational and Gracious Professionalism. Also, I am in my fourth year attending a three-week summer camp called Girls Make Games. Girls Make Games is a STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math) camp that takes place at Microsoft and Pop Cap and teaches girls how to code and make video games through programming. Thanks to Girls Make Games, I was recently invited to the White House and represented girls in technology. I was able to meet with Ruthe Farmer, to President Obama! I'm very active in school. I have been nominated for Student Council the last two years. I was elected and fulfilled my duties as the Spirit and Service officer last year and will be serving as student council President for the upcoming school year. I participated on the speech team for the last two years and this has helped me to speak with confidence in public speaking. Other activities include two years performing in the school musical, two years as a safety patrol officer and one year in Math Olympiad.

I would describe myself as a kind person who tries to see issues from multiple points of view. I like to code, play video games, read, spend time with friends, draw, fish, and watch TV.

I would like to be a member of the Seattle Youth Commission for several reasons. First, I would like to make a difference in my community by being involved, and the best way to do that is by listening and participating with my peers. Secondly, I want to expand my knowledge of government in a productive and interactive way. I don't know much about how our city government works, so volunteering for the Seattle Youth Commission would be a fantastic experience. I'm attending two camps in November that teach girls about getting involved in government: Camp Congress for Girls and Camp United Nations for Girls. Finally, I think this experience can help me to become a better leader, listener and team player. I look forward to working with people with varying personalities and backgrounds so I can learn from peers who have a different life experience than I do.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
