

CITY OF SEATTLE
ORDINANCE 126584
COUNCIL BILL 120328

AN ORDINANCE relating to the City Light Department; amending terms and conditions pertaining to the emergency bill assistance program and temporarily expanding access to assistance to certain eligible households for a limited time in response to the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (“COVID-19”) emergency; and amending Section 21.49.042 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, on January 31, 2020, the United States Department of Health and Human Services Secretary Alex Azar declared a public health emergency due to the outbreak of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (“COVID-19”) in the United States; and

WHEREAS, on February 29, 2020, the Governor of the State of Washington issued Proclamation 20-05, proclaiming a State of Emergency for all counties throughout the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, on March 3, 2020, Seattle Mayor Jenny Durkan proclaimed that a civil emergency exists in The City of Seattle; and

WHEREAS, on September 21, 2021, in response to the continued threat posed by the COVID-19 Delta variant, Seattle Mayor Jenny Durkan issued Executive Order 2021-07, ordering the City Light Department (“City Light”) to resume disconnections for nonpayment no earlier than January 15, 2022; and

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle’s disconnection moratorium expired on April 15, 2022, and City Light plans to launch an extensive outreach and engagement campaign to customers with electric bill arrearages; and

1 WHEREAS, Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 35.92.020(5) authorizes cities to aid low-
2 income persons in connection with services provided under chapter 35.92 RCW, 3 Municipal Utilities; and

4 WHEREAS, Seattle Municipal Code Section 21.49.042 authorizes an emergency low-income 5 bill assistance program whereby customers meeting certain criteria may receive a credit 6 against delinquent bills; and

7 WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic has had an adverse financial impact on many City Light 8 customers; and

9 WHEREAS, the presence of the Omicron variant continues to impact economic activity and 10 recovery in many sectors; and

11 WHEREAS, the state of Washington has committed $1 million in state funds for utility 12 arrearages for income eligible customers; and

13 WHEREAS, more than 17,000 City Light residential customers have an overdue balance greater 14 than $250 as of March 31, 2022, despite the temporary expansion of access to the 15 Emergency Bill Assistance Program's second bill credit in Ordinance 126493;

16 NOW, THEREFORE,

17 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

18 Section 1. Section 21.49.042 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance
19 126493, is amended as follows:

20 21.49.042 Emergency Bill Assistance Program

21 A. An emergency credit of up to 100 percent of a customer's delinquent bills not to 22 exceed a maximum credit as provided in subsection 21.49.042.C may be granted by the

1 Department to income-eligible residential accounts, metered for a single household that qualify 2 under the following criteria:

3 1. Total household income does not exceed 80 percent of the Washington State 4 median income; and

5 2. Have completed any Department program application where income eligibility 6 is verified; and

7 3. Have received a ten-day notice from the Department notifying them that 8 payment or payment arrangements must be made to prevent disconnection or have a past due 9 balance greater than $250 on an active service agreement.

10 B. A customer is eligible for the emergency credit once each calendar year, or twice each 11 calendar year if the household includes at least one minor child.

12 C. (~~In 2021, the maximum credit shall be $500~~). In 2022 and subsequent years, the 13 maximum credit (~~from 2021~~) of $500 shall be adjusted annually by the Department to reflect 14 the average change in electric bills for residential customers.

15 D. The Department may, at its discretion, require a payment plan for the unpaid balance 16 as a condition of receiving emergency assistance under the program.

17 E. Until December 31, (~~2022~~) 2023, households qualifying under subsection
18 21.49.042.A who do not have minor children in the household may receive a second emergency 19 assistance credit within the same calendar year, notwithstanding anything in subsection
20 21.49.042.B.

21 F. For customers eligible to receive two credits in one calendar year, the Department, at 22 its discretion, may grant one credit exceeding the maximum single credit amount under

1 subsection 21.49.042.C so long as the total amount credited to a customer during a calendar year
2 does not exceed two times the single maximum credit.

3 Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force 30 days after its approval by 4 the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten days after presentation, it
5 shall take effect as provided by Seattle Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

6 Passed by the City Council the 24th day of May, 2022, 7 and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 24th day of 8 May, 2022.
