RESUME

Jonathan P. Knapp

President, Seattle Education Association
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I came into teaching in 2002 from the private sector. I taught automotive technology at West Seattle High School. In previous professional incarnations I taught college French, led humanitarian interventions with Pharmacists Without Borders in Bosnia during the war there, operated a small auto repair business in south Seattle, worked as a tour operator and guide for an American firm that offered bicycle vacation tour packages in France, fought forest fires for the U.S. Forest Service around the American west, and organized progressive political action in the political, environmental, and labor sectors. I am currently a trustee for the Martin Luther King County Labor Council.

My roles within the Seattle Education Association have been:

2012 to present	President of the Seattle Education Association
2010 to 2012	Vice-President of the Seattle Education Association
2011 to present	Delegate to annual Washington Education Association Representative Assembly
2011 to present	Delegate to annual National Education Association Representative Assembly
2010 to present	Board Director for the Washington Education Association
2010	Chairperson, SEA Bargaining Team
2007 to 2010	Association Representative for West Seattle High School
