

Catalina Marie Cantú was born in San Francisco, CA. Her bi-racial family inspired her civil rights advocacy at the U. W. (B.A. and J. D.). Her 30 years in the public sector included Seattle City Council Central Staff. She is a co-founder of La Sala, a Latina/o/x artist network. Published in La Bloga, Poetry on Buses, and Raven Chronicles. She lives in West Seattle with her family.