

Amendment 5 to Council Bill 119279
Clarify who is a contractor
Sponsor: Councilmember Mosqueda

Initiative 122 contains a prohibition on candidates and elected officials receiving contributions from City contractors. The restriction applies to entities or persons who, in the prior two years, have "earned or received more than $250,000, under a contractual relationship with the city." This amendment would clarify that the contractual relationship only applies when there is a contract for goods and services provided to the City of Seattle. The amendment would allow an organization to be exempt from this prohibition when a contract allows for the pass-through of funds or a rebate of funds.
