Budget Action description:

This green sheet adds $250,000 GF in 2019 and $250,000 GF in 2020 to the Office of Housing (OH) to continue funding of the Home and Hope Program. This program identifies publicly and or privately owned tax-exempt land that is appropriate for development of affordable housing and affordable childcare facilities. The City has provided $400,000 in funding for this program from 2017-2018.

Funding will be used for pre-development services to support future development of sites already identified for affordable housing, with such services including, but not limited to:

- Appraisal and related valuations
- Surveys

- Test-to-fit and preliminary design
- Geotechnical analysis
- Phase 1 and potentially Phase 2 environmental studies
- Environmental and related studies necessary to State Environmental Protection Act (SEPA) review
- Feasibility analysis for inclusion of childcare and preschool facilities
- Cost estimation
- Project-specific community convenings
