¹ Rule VI.C.3 of the General Rules and Procedures of the Seattle City Council requires that a regularly scheduled meeting will be moved to the following Friday if:

- a. The regular schedule places that meeting on a legal holiday; or
- b. A legal holiday moves a City Council meeting to a day on which that meeting is regularly scheduled.

² Rule VII.H.4 of the General Rules and Procedures of the Seattle City Council requires that regular standing committee meetings are suspended (canceled) from the time the Council's Select Budget Committee receives the Mayor's proposed budget (typically the end of September) to the time the Council adopts a budget (typically the third week of November). Special standing committee meetings may be called:

- If review of a legislative action is required within a set time (e.g., quasi-judicial actions with 90-day deadlines for Council review); or
- Upon the approval of the President and the Chair of the Select Budget Committee, after consultation with the Central Staff Director.

1 Section 2. The duties of the standing committees are as follows:

2 Community Economic Development: To provide policy direction and oversight and to
3 deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 4 – economic development policies and programs; including the Office of Economic
- 5 Development, small business development and support, Business Improvement
- 6 Areas, workforce development, and improving access and opportunities to education
- 7 and training for low- and middle-income workers, youth and communities of color;
- 8 – civil rights issues, including the Office for Civil Rights, except for issues related to
- 9 tenant rights and protections;
- 10 – arts and cultural activities, nightlife issues, and special events;
- 11 – film and music activities; and
- 12 – the equitable development initiative and its projects.

13 Finance and Housing: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and 14 make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 15 – the financial management and policies of the City and its agents, including the
- 16 operating and capital budgets, levies, taxes, revenue, audits, and judgments and
- 17 claims against the City (the Finance and Housing Committee is the Finance
- 18 Committee required by the Seattle City Charter);
- 19 – oversight of the City’s public works construction projects except as otherwise
- 20 specified;
- 21 – the City Employees’ Retirement System;
- 22 – the Department of Finance and Administrative Services, including the Seattle
- 23 Animal Shelter, the City’s fleets and facilities, the Customer Service Bureau, and

- 6 protections.

7 Governance and Education: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate
8 and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 9 – regional, state, federal, and other governmental matters including Charter review,
- 10 code improvement, the Office of Intergovernmental Relations, and rules of the City
- 11 Council;
- 12 – City personnel issues, including labor-management relations, collective bargaining
- 13 agreements, and other issues related to salary rates, hours, and other conditions of
- 14 employment;
- 15 – the Office of the Employee Ombud;
- 16 – the City Auditor;
- 17 – the Office of Hearing Examiner;
- 18 – ethics and elections, including the Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission;
- 19 – immigrant and refugee rights, including the Office of Immigrant and Refugee
- 20 Affairs; and
- 21 – education and early learning initiatives, including the Department of Education and
- 22 Early Learning, the City’s Families, Education, Preschool, and Promise Levy, with a
- 23 goal of improving City schools and student success rates and reducing achievement
- 24 gaps.

1 Land Use and Neighborhoods: To provide policy direction and oversight and to
2 deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 3 – planning and land use, including comprehensive planning, community development,
4 zoning, design, and land use regulations, including the Office of Planning and
5 Community Development, and the Seattle Department of Construction and 6 Inspections, except for issues related to rental regulations;
- 7 – Major Institution Master Plans and quasi-judicial land use decisions; and
