D. APPROVAL OF THE AGENDAACTION 1:

Motion was made and duly seconded to adopt the proposed Agenda.

ACTION 2:

Motion was made by Councilmember Harrell, duly seconded and carried, to amend the agenda by establishing the voting procedure for the appointment of City Council Position 4 under "Other Business," as stated below:

The Chair will open nominations to fill City Council Position 4. Councilmembers will have the opportunity to nominate an applicant. An applicant will need to be nominated by a Councilmember for them to be considered. A second will be required to consider the nomination.

After nominations have been made, the call for nominees will close. Councilmembers will then be given an opportunity to make comments about the selected nominees, the factors or criterion they used in deciding whom to support and any other information they wish to share before voting begins.

When it is time to vote on the nominees, the Clerk will call the roll. Councilmembers will respond by stating the name of the nominee they wish to appoint from the selected nominees. Councilmembers may not change their vote until the next round of elections, should there be one. If one nominee receives five or more votes that individual is appointed to fill Position 4, and will assume office immediately after accepting the position and taking the Oath of Office. If the nominee does not receive five votes, the next nominee will be considered. If no nominee receives five votes, the process will repeat until one nominee receives five or more votes.
