Timeline of Events on May 30th, 2020

Written by Public Affairs on June 1, 2020 11:48 am

The Seattle Police Department managed a series of demonstrations throughout the day on Saturday, May 30th, 2020. In the early hours of the day, many of these groups were demonstrating peacefully, but by midafternoon several incidents quickly devolved into situations that endangered the lives of those demonstrating as well as our officers. At approximately, 2:45 pm Saturday, a peaceful demonstration at Westlake Park continued as groups in the vicinity of Westlake at 5th and Pine began to escalate. At approximately 3:55 pm, demonstrations began to grow across the entire city to approximately 10,000 individuals.

By mid-day Sunday, May 31st, we know there were hundreds of buildings and businesses damaged including ~~more than 90~~ at least 25 businesses in the Chinatown-International District. At least 8 cars were burned and additional vehicles were damaged. We are not aware of any serious injuries, but we do know there were community members injured and at least 6 officers injured. There were 57 arrests, most for burglary and assault, on May 30.

For full transparency to the public of the timeline of events, below is an initial timeline of major events on
