CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Tenant Relocation Assistance Ordinance; clarifying that a tenant relocation license is required before the removal of a rent or income restriction; and amending Sections 22.210.020, 22.210.030, 22.210.040, 22.210.050, 22.210.070, 22.210.080, 22.210.090, 22.210.100, 22.210.110, 22.210.120, 22.210.130, 22.210.136, 22.210.140, and 22.210.160 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle and other government and non-profit organizations provide funding and incentives for rent- and income-restricted housing which ensure housing stability for vulnerable low-income households; and

WHEREAS, in September 2018, the Seattle Women’s Commission and the King County Bar Association jointly published Losing Home: The Human Cost of Eviction in Seattle, finding that households who are evicted face material hardships that make it more difficult to secure safe and affordable housing and that the most disadvantaged groups face the highest likelihood of displacement; and

WHEREAS, the tax exemption and other federally assisted government programs set aside units within eligible properties to provide affordable rents to families with slightly higher incomes, typically between 60 percent to 90 percent of area median income (AMI) with some properties serving tenants earning 50 percent of AMI; and

WHEREAS, even for rent restricted units at 50 percent of AMI, rent can be unaffordable for tenants receiving social benefits such as supplemental security income; and

WHEREAS, tenants living in income restricted units are already extremely rent burdened; and

WHEREAS, over the past decade the average Seattle metro area rent has increased 91.8 percent according to data from the U.S. Census Bureau and the Department of Housing and Urban Development; and

WHEREAS, rent and income restrictions moderate rent increases that would otherwise be experienced in Seattle’s high-cost housing market; and

WHEREAS, finding replacement housing in Seattle’s rental market is difficult and costly; and

WHEREAS, when rent or income restrictions end, including those required in exchange for generous property tax exemptions, low-income households face risk of displacement, homelessness, and associated relocation costs due to limited notice and resources; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Council seeks to protect vulnerable low-income tenants by providing relocation assistance benefits to find safe and secure housing; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 22.210.020 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 115141, is amended as follows:

22.210.020 Findings and purpose((-))

A. Findings

1. The City of Seattle is experiencing a rapid rate of development that has reduced and continues to reduce the supply of rental housing available to low-and moderate-income tenants and has reduced the supply of rental housing affordable to such tenants.

2. The development and real estate market in Seattle has not been able to replace low-income units lost due to demolition, change of use, substantial rehabilitation, and removal of ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions from assisted housing, making it more difficult and more costly for low-income persons who are displaced by demolition, change of use, substantial rehabilitation, or removal of ~~((use restrictions from assisted housing))~~ rent or income restrictions to locate affordable substitute rental housing.

3. Rents in Seattle have been increasing rapidly and vacancies in rental housing are at low levels, making it increasingly difficult for tenants, especially those with low incomes, to locate affordable rental housing.

4. Pursuant to the public hearing held on June 7, 1990, the City Council finds that costs incurred by tenants to relocate within Seattle include actual physical moving costs, advance payments, utility fees, security and damage deposits and anticipated additional rent and utility costs, which, on average, equal or exceed $2,000 per tenant household.

5. The State of Washington has adopted legislation authorizing local jurisdictions to require the payment of relocation assistance to low-income tenants who are displaced from dwelling units by housing demolition, change of use, substantial rehabilitation, or removal of ~~((use restrictions from assisted housing))~~ rent or income restrictions.

6. Conditions in the current rental market have created a relocation crisis, because tenants, especially low-income tenants, do not have sufficient time to save money for relocation costs or to find comparable housing when they are evicted as a result of demolition, change of use, substantial rehabilitation, or removal of ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions from their dwelling units.

B. Purpose. Based upon the above findings, the purpose of this Chapter 22.210 is to provide relocation assistance to low-income tenants displaced by demolition, substantial rehabilitation, or change of use of residential rental property, or the removal of ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions from ~~((assisted))~~ housing developments.

Section 2. Section 22.210.030 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance 125901, is amended as follows:

2. An owner may, but is not required to, provide the Director with the owner's share of relocation assistance any time after application for the tenant relocation license but prior to the time it is required by subsection 22.210.110.B.1 ~~((above))~~. If the owner chooses this option, the amount to be provided to the Director will be based on the number of units to be demolished, changed in use, or substantially rehabilitated, or from which ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions will be removed, multiplied by the owner's share per unit for the number of units for which relocation assistance may be required. Returns of unused portions of the owner's share paid pursuant to this subsection 22.210.110.B shall be returned in accordance with subsection 22.210.130.F ~~((of Section 22.210.130))~~.

C. Section 10. Section 22.210.120 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance 118839, is amended as follows:

A. Requirement of ~~((Notice))~~ notice. The owner shall deliver to each tenant in each dwelling unit to be demolished, changed in use, or substantially rehabilitated, or from which ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions are to be removed, a ~~((ninety (90)))~~ 90-day notice of the owner's intention to demolish, substantially rehabilitate, change the use of, or remove ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions from the dwelling unit. Exceptions to this rule are:

- b. The later of:

- i. The same date the owner would have been able to deliver the ~~((ninety (90)))~~ 90-day notice to that tenant or any tenant, had no such extension been granted, so long as the owner has paid the owner's share of relocation assistance for all tenants pursuant to ~~((SMC))~~ Section 22.210.110, or

The amount of relocation assistance shall be adjusted annually by the percentage amount of change in the housing component of the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics. Such adjustments shall be published in a Director's rule.

B. A tenant shall be entitled to obtain a relocation assistance payment only after receipt of a notice from the Director of eligibility for tenant relocation assistance or, if an appeal was taken pursuant to Section 22.210.150, after receipt of a final unappealed decision from the Hearing Examiner or a court that the tenant is eligible for relocation assistance.

C. An eligible tenant may obtain the relocation assistance payment by completing a request for relocation assistance and an affidavit of the date of vacating the unit and submitting the originals to the Director. Within ~~((twenty-one (21)))~~ 21 days after submission to the Director, a check will be issued.

D. The relocation assistance payment shall be in addition to the refund from the owner of any deposits or other sums to which the tenant is lawfully entitled.

E. ~~((If an eligible tenant does not submit a completed request for relocation assistance, or does not negotiate the check for relocation assistance within one hundred eighty (180) days after vacating the dwelling unit to be demolished, changed in use, substantially rehabilitated or from which use restrictions are to be removed, the))~~ An eligible tenant shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to relocation assistance((-)) if:

1. The tenant does not submit a completed request for relocation assistance within 180 days after vacating the dwelling unit to be demolished, changed in use, or substantially rehabilitated; or

2. The tenant does not submit a completed request for relocation assistance within 180 days after the removal of a rent or income restriction or the within 180 days after the date of the notice of eligibility to the tenant, whichever is later; or

1. If there was an appeal of a tenant's eligibility and the tenant was found to be not eligible, the owner's share of the relocation assistance for that tenant shall be returned to the owner within ~~((thirty (30)))~~ 30 days of a final unappealed decision; or

Section 12. Section 22.210.136 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 124882, is amended as follows:

22.210.136 Rent increase to avoid application of Chapter 22.210

A. No owner may increase rent for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210.

B. If a tenant has received notice of a rent increase of ten percent or more over the periodic or monthly rental rate charged the same tenant for the same housing unit and same services for any period or month during the preceding 12 months that the tenant believes is for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210, and the tenant makes a complaint to the Director within one year of receiving the notice of the rent increase, the owner shall, within ten days of being notified by the Director of the complaint, complete and file a certification with the Director stating that the rent increase is not for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210. The failure of the owner to complete and timely file the certification is a defense for the tenant in an eviction action based upon the tenant's failure to pay the increased rent.

C. Regardless of whether a certification is timely filed, the Director may investigate the complaint and decide whether the rent increase was made for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210. A decision by the Director that the rent increase was made for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210 constitutes a finding that the owner violated subsection 22.210.136.A.

D. There is a rebuttable presumption the rent increase was made for the purpose of avoiding the application of this Chapter 22.210 and the owner violated subsection 22.210.136.A if:

1. Within 90 days of the effective date of a rent increase of 20 percent or more over the periodic or monthly rental rate charged the same tenant for the same housing unit and same services for any period or month during the preceding 12 months, that tenant vacates a dwelling unit and, within 180 days of the effective date of the rent increase, the owner:

a. Engages in substantial rehabilitation; or

b. Applies for a permit for a substantial rehabilitation, demolition, change of use, or removal of ~~((use))~~ rent or income restrictions; and

2. The owner failed to complete and timely file a certification after being notified by the Director of a complaint as provided in subsection 22.210.136.B, or failed to follow the provisions of this Chapter 22.210 after completing and timely filing the certification.

E. The Director shall mail a copy of the Director's decision to the owner and to the tenant who made the complaint.

Section 13. Section 22.210.140 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 124882, is amended as follows:

Any rent increase after the removal of rent or income restrictions and prior to the issuance of a tenant relocation license is considered a material increase or change to the obligations of the tenant.

A. The Director shall administer and enforce the provisions of this (~~(chapter)~~) Chapter 22.210 and is authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations consistent with (~~(the chapter)~~) this Chapter 22.210 to carry out the Director's duties.

B. Whenever an owner fails to comply with the provisions of this (~~(chapter)~~) Chapter 22.210, the Director shall refuse to issue the tenant relocation license.

C. Any failure to comply with the requirements of this (~~(chapter)~~) Chapter 22.210 or with a decision of the Hearing Examiner under this (~~(chapter)~~) Chapter 22.210 shall be a violation of (~~(the Code)~~) this Chapter 22.210.

D. (~~(Any failure of)~~) It shall be a violation of this Chapter 22.210 if a tenant who has received relocation assistance pursuant to this (~~(chapter)~~) Chapter 22.210 fails to vacate the dwelling unit (~~(on or before)~~) :

1. After (~~(after)~~) the expiration of (~~(the ninety (90) day)~~) a notice issued (~~(pursuant to Section~~

~~22.210.120 and receipt of))~~ for good cause as defined in subsections 22.206.160.C.1.h or 22.206.160.C.1.i; or

2. After relocation assistance pursuant to this ((chapter by)) Chapter 22.210 is provided to a person not eligible for such assistance ((under this chapter shall be violations of this chapter)).
