WHEREAS, Seattle Public Utilities provides wholesale water service to many water utilities surrounding

WHEREAS, these water supply contracts establish procedures for allocation of Seattle Public Utilities' costs to

Wholesale Customers and treatment of accumulated surpluses or deficits of annual revenues as

WHEREAS, the provisions of the Full and Partial Requirements Contract for Supply of Water (Contracts) also require Wholesale Customers to pay a new service fee (Facility Charge) at the time they connect a new

Public Utilities’ regional water conservation program from 2014 through 2018; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Contracts, the Operating Board of the Seattle Regional Water Supply System has determined to recover costs for regional conservation for 2019 through 2023 through Facility Charges; and
