CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to civilian and community oversight of the police; clarifying the role, governance and operating procedures of the Community Police Commission, reducing its size and geographic appointment requirements, giving it authority to remove members and Executive Director for cause, and amending its stipend provisions; establishing qualifications and procedures for the Commission's Executive Director and creating a Deputy Director; referring to the Commission's role in collective bargaining hearings; amending Sections 3.29.010, 3.29.320, 3.29.330, 3.29.340, 3.29.350, 3.29.360, 3.29.400, and 4.04.120 of the Seattle Municipal Code; and repealing Ordinance 124543.

WHEREAS, the Community Police Commission (CPC) was created by federal consent decree in 2012 and charged with a significant oversight function that is intended to serve as a community voice for the entire City; and

WHEREAS, the CPC should include diverse voices that best represent Seattleites, and allows them to share responsibility for their governance, and such representation may not be realized if Commissioners must be appointed by District; and

WHEREAS, organizational performance is dependent on effective leadership and the CPC must ensure that it has in its Executive Director a proven leader with a background in development, community engagement, criminal legal system and police reform issues; and

WHEREAS, the CPC has entrusted its Co-Chairs with providing strategic direction and guidance to its Executive Director, who will perform best under the singular direction, authority and supervision of the CPC Co-Chairs; and

WHEREAS, the number of CPC Commissioners has increased from 15 members as authorized in 2012 in Ordinance 124021 to 21 Commissioners as authorized in 2017 in the Accountability Ordinance (Ordinance 125315), and in the years since, the increased size has not resulted in better representation of community viewpoints or increased ability to meet the obligations of the Accountability Ordinance. Rather, the increased size has led to increased challenges in providing effective oversight; and

WHEREAS, the CPC has in 2023 undergone a comprehensive and transparent process to strengthen its organizational structure, to ensure uninterrupted operation of the CPC, improve accountability of Commissioners to the Co-Chairs, Mayor and Council; and

WHEREAS, the CPC on May 17, 2023 adopted amendments to its bylaws to reflect changes that will allow it to better fulfill its obligations under its authorizing legislation and the Accountability Ordinance, Ordinance 125315;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 3.29.010 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 125315, is amended as follows:

Section 6. This section transitions the Community Police Commission from 21 members to 15.

B. As amended by this ordinance, Seattle Municipal Code subsection 3.29.350.A creates a Commission with four members who have specialized qualifications under Seattle Municipal Code subsection 3.29.340.D and 11 general members.
